EMG Marketing Godo Kaisha

nanaco Electronic Money Services Expanded

TonenGeneral Group company EMG Marketing Godo Kaisha (head office: Minato-ku, Tokyo; president: Takashi Hirose; “the Company” herein) announces the expansion of nanaco electronic money services starting July 15 at Esso, Mobil and General service stations (SS) nationwide. Details are as follows.

1. Start of nanaco electronic money payment services at full-service SS

In addition to payment services at self-service SS that began in autumn 2015, payment using nanaco electronic money will be available at around 500 full-service SS nationwide. This will bring the total number of SS where nanaco electronic money payment is available to around 1,700 nationwide, increasing convenience for customers.

2. Start of cash-recharge availability for nanaco electronic money

Cash recharge for nanaco electronic money and the conversion of nanaco points to electronic money will be available at the approximately 1,700 SS stated above, further simplifying payment using nanaco electronic money and increasing convenience for customers.

The Company will continue to focus on providing customer-oriented services to further enhance the value of our Esso, Mobil and General service stations.

“nanaco” is trademark of Seven Card Service Co., Ltd.
