Tonengeneral Group Participates in 19th Yokohama YMCA Charity Run

The Tonengeneral Group (“the Group”) participated as a main sponsor in the 19th Yokohama YMCA International Charity Run, held at Minato Mirai 21 Rinko Park, Nishi-ku, Yokohama, on October 15, 2016.

The YMCA International Charity Run is a YMCA program that supports the societal integration of children with disabilities. The Group has provided sponsorship for this program every year since 1999.

In this year’s event, teams of five runners each, including at least one female runner, competed in a relay race on a 1.1 km course in Rinko Park. A total of one-hundred fourteen teams representing companies and organizations from various sectors took part in the race. The Group entered nine teams, with the addition of six volunteers from the Group, along with family members and colleagues who came to cheer the runners on bringing the total number of Group participants to around 80.

The Group will continue to advance its social contribution initiatives through a variety of activities.
