

Information

Alert regarding JX Holdings Executives Impersonated on LinkedIn*

It is confirmed the fact that executives of JX Holdings are impersonated on LinkedIn. Please be alerted since by viewing the impersonated accounts on LinkedIn, wrong information may be sent, or false business may be offered. In addition, misuse of information might occur if you present any information to the page.

We are already requested LinkedIn to delete the pages. In any occasion, JX Holdings does not make an offer in relation to its business through SNS.

*LinkedIn : A social networking website focusing on the users' professional career where people conduct activities such as business talks, recruitment, and professional networking