About the TonenGeneral Children's Culture Award and the TonenGeneral Music Awards

The TonenGeneral Children's Culture Award and the TonenGeneral Music Awards were established to honor outstanding individuals and groups who have contributed to the improvement and prosperity of children's culture and music culture in Japan.

The TonenGeneral Children's Culture Award, established in 1966 and now in its fifty-first year, has grown to become a time-honored award. One feature of this award is the diverse array of recipients and genres for which it is presented. Past recipients, which have been selected from various professions involved in children's culture and encompass everyone from nationally-renowned personalities to those who conduct their activities on a local level, have included authors, scholars, researchers, critics, singers, actors, the director of a wild grass garden, the editor and publisher of a children's newspaper, a puppetry carnival steering committee and the head of a children's musical troupe.

The Tonen General Music Awards, established in 1971, are now in their forty-sixth year. The Western Classical Music Promotion division was created in 1989 to provide encouragement to promising young musicians who are sure to have an impact on the future of music in Japan. In the Japanese Traditional Music division, 21 past recipients have been designated as Living National Treasures. Features of the awards include divisions for both Japanese traditional music and Western classical music, and recognition not only of a particular year's activities but of accomplishments to date.
