Tsurumi Lube Oil Blending Plant Participates in Volunteer Cleanup of Nearby Park

The Tsurumi lube oil blending plant (Yokohama, Kanagawa; plant manager: Masayuki Miyazaki) of TonenGeneral Sekiyu K.K. (head office: Minato-ku, Tokyo; president: Jun Mutoh) took part in a volunteer cleanup of nearby Kanseicho Park, organized by the members of the Kansei-Anzen Neighborhood Association, on November 16.

Kanseicho Park, located in a residential area near the plant, is a leisure and recreation spot for the local community. The members of the Kansei-Anzen Neighborhood Association conduct regular cleanups of the park. Sixteen volunteers from the Tsurumi plant, including employees and contractor company staff, participated in the November 16 cleanup. The plant took part in this activity for the first time last year.

During the cleanup, which took about an hour, participants talked congenially among themselves, feeling a sense of accomplishment in the beautification of the park that resulted from their efforts. After the completion of the cleanup, the head of the Kansei-Anzen Neighborhood Association thanked the volunteers for their efforts.

The TonenGeneral Group will continue to advance its social contribution initiatives through a variety of activities.
