Tonengeneral Group Donates Calendars and Planners to Daughters of St. Paul

The Tonengeneral Group donated unused calendars and planners, contributed by its business sites and employees, to the Daughters of St. Paul (Akasaka, Minato-ku, Tokyo) on January 16, 2017. The donations have been distributed by the head office of the Daughters of St. Paul to branch offices, churches and other locations nationwide where calendars and planners are needed. The Tonengeneral Group has carried out calendar donations and other social contribution activities for the Daughters of St. Paul for over 30 years.
